

"picnic" license, permitting the club owner to sell only beer at any place other than his regular place of business on Sundays between 12 noon and midnight notwithstanding daylight saving time for a license fee of five dollars ($5.) per each Sunday he elects to hold a "picnic".

(f) Special license of any class, which shall entitle the holder thereof to exercise the privilege of such license for a period not exceeding ten consecutive days at a fee of five dollars ($5.00), per day, in cases where a license has been cancelled, revoked, suspended, renewal denied by the local board or where a renewal license has been granted by the local board and the court on appeal has reversed the local board's decision, for the purpose of permitting him to dispose of his stock of alcoholic beverages; and said special license shall carry with it the privilege of selling said stock at retail or to one or more holders of wholesale licenses, and such holders of wholesale licenses are hereby authorized to purchase same. But nothing herein shall authorize said licensee to purchase alcoholic beverages for the purpose of resale under this license.

(g) Special licenses of any class which shall entitle the holder thereof to make a temporary removal of the licensed premises from one location to another where said removal is made necessary by fire or other catastrophe while said premises are being restored, and which shall entitle the holder thereof to exercise the privileges of such license for a period in the discretion of the licensing authority but not to exceed six months. No fee shall be charged for this special license but the said licensing authority shall be required to approve, as in the case of original application, the new location to which the license holder has temporarily removed.

(h) None of the special licenses provided for in this section shall be issued in any county, or in Baltimore City, or in this State in case of application for statewide license, if the issuance of a regular license of the same class is not authorized by this article.

(i) In Garrett County, a special Class C beer, beer and wine, or beer, wine and liquor license may be issued provided that any license so issued may not be for a period of more than two consecutive days. A fee of $50 shall be charged for any such special license.

(j) In Charles and St. Mary's counties, there shall be a special Class D (on-sale) beer license which shall be issued to any bona fide religious, fraternal, civic, veterans', hospital or charitable organization, for a period not exceeding ten consecutive days from the effective date thereof, upon the payment of a fee of five dollars ($5.00) for each such license.
