

The stylistic errors, a run-on subsection and stylistic errors in a cross-reference and in an internal reference, occurred in Ch. 220 of the Acts of 1973. The antiquated language was also contained in Ch. 220 of the Acts of 1973.

The run-on subsection was noted by the professional staff of the Legislative Division of the Department of Legislative Reference. The stylistic errors in the cross-reference and in the internal references were noted by the Administrative Office of the Courts of Maryland.

Any person violating any of the provisions of §§ 504, 505, 506, 507 and 508 shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each and every such violation.]

DRAFTER'S NOTE: This repeals an obsolete provision, Article 27, § 510.

Article 27, §§ 504 through 508 were repealed by Ch. 630 of the Acts of 1968.

The obsolete provision was noted by the Administrative Office of the Courts of Maryland.

522.

It shall not be lawful to keep open or use any dancing saloon, opera house, tenpin alley, barber saloon or ball alley within this State on the Sabbath day, commonly called Sunday. Any person or persons, or body politic or corporate, who shall violate any provision of this section, or cause or knowingly permit the same to be violated by a person or persons in his, her or its employ shall be liable to indictment in any court of this State having criminal jurisdiction, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined a sum not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, in the discretion of the court, for the first offense; and if convicted a second time for a violation of this section, the person or persons or body politic or corporate shall be fined a sum not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars; and if a natural person shall be imprisoned, not less than ten nor more than thirty days in the discretion of the court; and in the case of any conviction or convictions under this section subsequent to the second, such person or persons, body politic or corporate shall be fined on each occasion a sum of at least double that imposed upon him, her, them or it on the last preceding conviction; and if a natural person, shall be imprisoned not less than thirty nor more than sixty days in the
