7-208.

(a) (1) In this section the following words have the meanings indicated.

(2) "Disabled veteran" means an individual who:

(i) is honorably discharged or released under honorable circumstances from active service in any branch of the armed forces; and

(ii) has been declared by the Veterans' Administration to have a permanent 100% service connected disability that results from blindness or other disabling cause that:

1. is reasonably certain to continue for the life of the veteran; and

2. was not caused or incurred by misconduct of the veteran.

(d) (1) A disabled veteran or a surviving spouse shall apply for an exemption under this section by providing to the supervisor:
