

"levels" or "gangways" and to the dip are known as ["slopes."] "SLOPES".

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Misplaced punctuation in § 7-101(f) of the Natural Resources Article.

Occurred: In the printing of the 1974 Volume of the Natural Resources Article.

7-304.

The Bureau may establish a place within the mining area of the State to give instruction to an applicant for "first-class mine foreman's [certificate,] CERTIFICATE", "fire-boss [certificate,] CERTIFICATE", "permit of [competence,] COMPETENCE", and other instruction required under this subtitle, or any rule and regulation made under it. The Bureau may conduct courses in order to qualify properly any person who makes application for the various [type] TYPES of certificates.

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Misplaced punctuation and incorrect word usage in § 7-304 of the Natural Resources Article.

Occurred: In the printing of the 1974 Volume of the Natural Resources Article.

7-401.

(a) Each operator shall notify the Bureau immediately in the manner the Bureau prescribes [if] IF:

(1) Any change occurs in the name of the operator of a mine, an executive official concerned with its operation, or in the designation of the mine;

(2) A mine has been abandoned or work discontinued;

(3) Work has commenced for the purpose of opening a new mine. The notice shall include sketch maps outlining the plans intended to be pursued in the opening;

(4) The working of a mine is resumed after an abandonment or discontinuance for a period exceeding two months; or

(5) A squeeze, crush, or fire occurs, or a dangerous body of water, explosive, or noxious gas is found.

DRAFTER'S NOTE: