

CHAPTER 28

(Senate Bill 173)

AN ACT concerning

Department of Licensing and Regulation - Fees

FOR the purpose of altering the license fees and certain other fees charged by certain Boards within the Department of Licensing and Regulation; making stylistic changes; providing for the codification of this Act under certain circumstances; and generally relating to fees charged by the Department of Licensing and Regulation.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,

Article 56 - Licenses

Section 223, 254(b), 311, 314, 418(d), 450, 453(b), 500, and 516(a)

Annotated Code of Maryland

(1983 Replacement Volume and 1987 Supplement)

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

Article 56 - Licenses

223.

The following fees shall be charged by and paid to the Commission by resident applicants.

(a) For each real estate broker's license a fee of [$70] $80 and for each biennial registration of said license thereafter, a fee of $80.

(b) For taking any written examination in order to be a real estate broker, a fee of $10 and for real estate salesman, a fee of $5. In addition, applicants taking either examination shall be required to pay directly to the testing service selected by the Commission a fee covering the actual cost of giving the examination.

(c) For each license as an associate real estate broker issued to a member of a partnership, association, or officer of a corporation other than the member of the partnership or association, or officer of the corporation named in the license issued to such partnership, association, or corporation, a fee of
