

"records of each of his subcontractors". The latter seemingly would encompass work off the site.

In the introductory language of subsection (c) of this section, the words "for the subcontractor's records" are substituted for the former words "as the case may be", for clarity.

In subsection (c)(2) of this section, the reference to the rates "paid" is substituted for the former reference to the rates "contained therein", for clarity.

In subsection (c)(4) of this section, the former words "as the case may be" are deleted as unnecessary in light of the introductory language of subsection (c) of this section.

In the introductory language of subsection (d) of this section, the reference to the records "required under subsection (b) of this section" is substituted for the former reference to "any of his contractors'" records, for clarity.

Subsection (d)(1) of this section is revised to state affirmatively that the "public body" may perform the act described in that item.

In subsection (d)(1) of this section, the word "postpone" is substituted for the former words "be held in abeyance", for clarity and brevity.
