

To that end, in revising this Division II, the Procurement Revision Review Committee has conformed the language and organization of this Division II to that of Division I of this article and to that of other revised articles to the extent that the former law allowed.

This is particularly true as to provisions in this Division II that relate to creation and composition of units, appointment of members, tenure, and vacancies.

In the "Tenure; vacancies" subsections of these provisions, there is a standard paragraph providing that a "member who is appointed after a term has begun serves only for the rest of the term and until a successor is appointed and qualifies". That provision applies: (1) when a successor is appointed to replace a member who has died, resigned, or failed for any other reason to complete a term; (2) when a member is appointed to succeed a member who has "held over" to part of the next term, pending the delayed appointment and qualification of the successor; or (3) when, in any other situation, a member takes office after a term has begun, e.g., when, at the completion of a term, there is a delay in the appointment of a successor, but the member who served the prior term does not "hold over".

SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the revisor's notes and catchlines contained in this Act are not law and may not be considered to have been enacted as a part of this Act.

SECTION 4. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That nothing in this Act affects the term of office of an appointed or elected member of any department, board, commission, committee, agency, or other unit. A person who is a member of a unit on the effective date of this Act shall remain a member for the balance of the term to which appointed or elected, unless the member sooner dies, resigns, or is removed under provisions of law.

SECTION 5. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Act, any transaction affected by or flowing from any change of nomenclature or any statute there amended, repealed, or transferred, and validly entered into before the effective date of this Act and every right, duty, or interest flowing from the statute remains valid after that effective date and may be terminated, completed, consummated, or enforced as required or allowed by any statute amended, repealed, or transferred by this Act as though the repeal, amendment, or transfer had not occurred. If the change in nomenclature involves a change in name or designation of any State unit, the successor unit shall be considered in all respects as having the powers and obligations granted the former unit.
