The departments may certify a service contract to the Board of Public Works only if they find that:

(1) The potential economic advantage of contracting is not outweighed by the public's interest in having the particular function performed directly by the State government;

(2) The contract does not adversely affect the State's affirmative action efforts;

(3) The contract will include adequate control mechanisms to insure that the work is carried out as provided in the terms of the contract; and

(4) The contract complies with all of the requirements of [this] Division II of [this article] THE STATE FINANCE AND PROCUREMENT ARTICLE.

REVISOR'S NOTE: Chapter ____, Acts of 1988, which enacted the State Finance and Procurement Article, also amended this section to make a technical correction in item (4) by substituting the reference to "the State Finance and Procurement Article" for the former reference to "this article".
