[8-107.] 8-108.

(a) An active license expires on December 31 of each year and is renewable every year upon payment of the fee and delivery of the [bond] CERTIFICATE OF INSURANCE, unless the Board has revoked the license.

(b) An individual who holds a valid electrical license may go on inactive status, during which time the licensee may not engage in electrical contracting in Washington County. An inactive license expires on December 31 of each year and is renewable every year upon payment of the inactive license fee. [A bond] INSURANCE is not required while the license is inactive.

(c) A licensee may reactivate a license upon a written request to the Board and payment of the reactivating fee and delivery of [an approved $1,000 bond] A CERTIFICATE OF INSURANCE AS REQUIRED BY SECTION 8-107 OF THIS TITLE.

The Board may revoke for proper cause any license or license renewal after a full hearing of all parties in interest.

[8-109.]

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, a license and license renewal shall be in force and effect only so long as an approved bond filed with the Board in accordance with the provisions of this subtitle remains in full force and effect. Every such license or license renewal shall become utterly void and of no effect should any such bond for any reason whatever become inoperative or ineffective, regardless of the regular date of expiration of the certificate or renewal.

(b) An individual holding an active Maryland State Master Electrical license who lives in Washington County or has a principal place of business in this county shall maintain an active Washington County Master Electrical License. If a licensee maintains an active State license and files with the Board a certificate of insurance acceptable to the Board, the Board may issue a bond without requiring a bond. The certificate of insurance shall contain a provision that the insurer may not cancel the policy until the insurer has given at least 30 days prior written notice to the Board. If the insurance policy is canceled, the license shall become void and of no effect.]
