

which and who are determined to have the most constructive influence on youth. To be eligible, a station must be located in Maryland or serve the Maryland area from the District of Columbia. A program to be eligible must have been produced in Maryland or directed to the Maryland audience. Awards shall be given in the following categories:

(1) The most influential program having a constructive effect on youth;

(2) The most influential series having a constructive effect on youth;

(3) The station which places the greatest emphasis on constructive programming for youth;

(4) The station which shows the least amount of violence;

(5) The station which most encourages responsible parenthood.

(b) The categories listed in subsection (a) shall be awarded in each of the following areas:

(1) Programs designed for children up to 12 years of age;

(2) Programs designed for children 12 to 18 years of age.]

[10-403.

The Governor shall present the awards annually at a public ceremony.]

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1988.

Approved April 12, 1988.

-----