signs posted in accordance with this paragraph.  At each  polling place,  2 election judges, 1 from each principal political party, shall be designated by the election board  and,  acting  jointly, shall post signs outlining a line around the entrance and exit of the building closest to that part of the building in which voting occurs.   The line shall be located as near as practicable to 100 feet from the entrance and exit and shall  be  established  after consideration of the configuration of the entrance and the effect of  placement  on  public  safety  and the flow of pedestrian and vehicular traffic.  The signs  shall  contain  the  following  or comparable language: "No Electioneering Beyond this Point".

                    (ii)  In  Anne Arundel, Cecil, GARRETT, Harford, Kent, and Queen Anne's Counties, [no  person  may]  TO  canvass, electioneer,  or  post  any  campaign  literature  or material on election day in a polling place or within a 300 foot radius  from the entrance and exit of the building closest to that part of the building in which voting occurs.

     (b)  A  person  who  violates a provision of this section is subject to a fine,  on conviction, of not less than $50  or  more than $500, or imprisonment for not more than 60 days, or both.

     SECTION  2.   AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1988.

Approved May 2, 1988.

CHAPTER 146

(Senate Bill 478)

AN ACT concerning

Insurance Agents – Appointments

FOR the purpose of permitting an insurance  agent  under  certain circumstances and with respect to certain kinds of insurance to  submit  an informal inquiry or solicit an application of insurance without an appointment from the insurer  to  which the  inquiry  or  application  is  submitted; requiring  an insurer  receiving  an  application  for  a  life  insurance policy, health insurance policy, or annuity contract from an agent  that  holds  no  valid  appointment  from the insurer either to reject an application  or  to  appoint  the  agent within  a  specified  period;  and generally relating to the appointment of insurance agents.
