

Subsection (b)(1) of this section is standard language added to state expressly that the provisions on contested cases apply to administrative hearings under this section. In light of this addition, the provisions of former Art. 56, § 140(i) that allowed the applicant to appear with counsel and present testimony are deleted as unnecessary.

Subsection (c) of this section is new language added to state expressly a power of the Comptroller that is inherent in the authority to conduct a formal administrative hearing under this section.

The introductory exception in subsection (a) of this section is added to clarify that the Comptroller may take summary action against a person under certain circumstances. See SG § 10-405(b).

Defined terms: "Comptroller" § 1-101
