

(c) "Funds" means money or credit.

(d) "Insufficient funds" - A drawer has "insufficient funds" with a drawee to cover a check when he has no funds or account whatever, or funds in an amount less than that needed to cover the check; and a check dishonored for "no account" shall also be deemed to have been dishonored for "insufficient funds".

(e) "Obtain" means obtain as defined in Section 340(f) of this article.

(f) "Pass" - A person "passes" a check when, being a payee, holder, or bearer of a check which previously has been or purports to have been drawn and uttered by another, he delivers it, for a purpose other than collection, to a third person who thereby acquires a right with respect thereto.

(g) "Property" means property as defined in Section 340(h) of this article.

(h) "Representative drawer" means a person who signs a check as drawer in a representative capacity or as agent of the person whose name appears thereon as the principal drawer or obligor.

(i) "Services" includes, but is not limited to:

(1) Labor or professional service;

(2) Telecommunication, public utility, toll facilities, or transportation service; or

(3) Lodging, entertainment, or restaurant service.

(j) "Utter" - A person "utters" a check when, as a drawer or representative drawer thereof, he delivers it or causes it to be delivered to a person who thereby acquires a right against the drawer with respect to the check. One who draws a check with intent that it be so delivered is deemed to have uttered it if the delivery occurs.

(k) "Value" means value as defined in Section 340(l) of this article.

141.

A person is guilty of obtaining property or services by a bad check when:

(a) (1) As a drawer or representative drawer, he obtains property or services by uttering a check knowing that he or his principal, as the case may be, has insufficient funds with the drawee to cover it and other outstanding checks; [and]
