

Subsection (d) of this section is new language that, in part, is derived without substantive change from former Art. 56, § 223(b) and, in part, is added to provide a uniform examination fee for all applicants for examinations.

Subsection (e) of this section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 56, § 217(c)(3) and the second sentence of (c)(1).

Subsection (f)(1) of this section is new language derived from the reference in former Art. 56, § 223(b), to a testing service, and rephrased to state expressly that the Commission may use a service for the administration of examinations.

Subsection (f)(2) of this section is new language added to state expressly that, subject to the requirements set by the Commission, it may delegate to the testing service responsibility for setting the time and place of examinations and for notifying applicants.

In the introductory language of subsection (d) of this section, the term "applicant" is substituted for the former term "resident applicants", on the recommendations of the Joint Subcommittee on the Business Occupations Article, to establish a uniform examination fee for resident and nonresident applicants in conformity with changes in the fee structure made throughout this title. See the General Subcommittee Comment to this title.

In subsection (d)(1) of this section, the former reference to an examination "fee of $5" for a real estate salesperson is deleted to provide a uniform examination fee for all applicants for examinations.

In subsection (d)(2) of this section, the reference to payment to the Commission is added to clarify that an applicant shall pay the part of the examination fee covering the cost of the examinations to either the Commission or the testing service, according to the arrangement established by the Commission.

Subsection (e)(1) of this section is restated in standard language to indicate that it is the duty of the Commission to determine the subjects, scope and form of, and the passing score for the examinations given under this title.

In subsection (e)(4) of this section, the language "given on a particular date" is added to clarify that
