

recommendation of the Joint Subcommittee on the Business Occupations Article, to increase the fine to an amount not exceeding $5,000 in conformity with changes made throughout this section to provide a uniform set of penalties for all violations.

Subsection (a)(13) of this section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 56, § 230B(b).

Subsection (a)(14) of this section is new language substituted, on the recommendation of the Joint Subcommittee on the Business Occupations Article, for former Art. 56, § 217A(g). The new language clarifies that a person who violates any provision of § 4-610 ["Filing false statement"] of this subtitle is guilty of a misdemeanor, increases the fine to an amount not exceeding $5,000, and provides that, on conviction, a person is also subject to imprisonment not exceeding 1 year or both a fine and imprisonment. These provisions conform to changes made throughout this section to provide a uniform set of penalties for all violations.

Subsection (a)(15) of this section is new language derived in part without substantive change from former Art. 56, § 230C(f). New language is added, on the recommendation of the Joint Subcommittee on the Business Occupations Article, to increase the fine to $5,000 in conformity with changes made throughout this section to provide a uniform set of penalties.

Subsection (b) of this section is new language added, on the recommendation of the Joint Subcommittee on the Business Occupations Article, to provide a penalty for a violation of § 4-612 ["Violations by corporation, partnership, or other association"] by a corporation, partnership, or any other associations.

In subsection (a)(5) through (7) of this section, the former, specific reference in Art. 56, § 231 to the date after which a person is subject to penalties for certain violations is deleted as obsolete.
