

Subsection (f) of this section is new language derived from the fifteenth sentence of former Art. 56, § 449(a).

In subsection (e) of this section, the former phrase "for a certificate" is deleted as misleading since, under the former law, a "certificate" referred to a certificate of a master plumber. The former law provided for the examination of applicants to be either journey plumbers or master plumbers. Thus, any right of an applicant to review the applicant's examination would apply to both the journey plumber examination and the master plumber examination.
