(2) Each person, firm or corporation, who shall carry on the business of construction as mentioned in this section, shall before doing so, first take out a license therefor and pay an annual license fee of $30 in Baltimore City or $15 in each county.

(b) In addition to the requirements set forth in subsections (a) and (d) of this section, any nonresident person, firm or corporation desiring to carry on the business of construction in this State, as defined in subsection (a) shall:

(1) Obtain a license by paying an annual fee of $50 and applying to the clerk of the circuit court in the county where the work will be performed; and

(2) Obtain an additional $50 license for each single contract in which the gross amount of that contract is in excess of $1,000.

(c) The licenses required by subsection (b) are not to be required of any nonresident person, firm or corporation if the state of residence of that nonresident person, firm or corporation does not require a similar license of a Maryland contractor doing business in that state.

(d) If the fee in the state of the nonresident is higher than the fee in this State, any nonresident person, firm, or corporation desiring to carry on the business of construction in the state which is incorporated in or has central offices located in a state other than this State shall be subject to all the fees imposed on a similar nonresident business in the state of incorporation or the state where the central offices are located.
