

restrictions applicable to any consumer member of an occupational board under the Department.

Subsection (g)(2) of this section is new language added to reflect the continuing stagger created under the first sentence of former Art. 56, § 532(c), which specified the terms of the initial members and which is deleted as obsolete. The terms of one-third of the members of the State Board expire each year.

Subsection (g)(5) of this section is new language substituted for the first clause of the fourth sentence of former Art. 56, § 532(c), which prohibited reappointment of a member serving 1 full term.

Subsection (h) of this section is new language that repeats the provisions of Md. Constitution, Art. II, § 15. For other provisions on removal, see: Md. Constitution, Art. XV, § 2, on suspension and removal for crimes and Art. 41, § 1-203 of the Code, on removal for failure to attend meetings.

In subsection (a)(2)(i) of this section, the word "licensed" is added to reflect the licensing requirement of subsection (c)(1) of this section.

In subsection (a)(2)(ii) and (4) of this section, the defined term "consumer member{s}" is substituted for the former references to "public members", for clarity and conformity to similar references in other titles of this article.

In subsection (a)(3)(ii) of this section, the former regional designation "Eastern Shore" is deleted as unnecessary in light of the specific references to the counties comprising the Eastern Shore.

In subsection (a)(5) of this section, the former references to a "city" and "political subdivision" are deleted as unnecessary in light of the reference to "county".

In the introductory language of subsection (c) of this section, the defined term "master electrician" is substituted for the former word "industry", for clarity.

Also in the introductory language of subsection (c) of this section, the former exemption of initial master electrician members of the State Board from licensing and experience requirements is deleted as obsolete.
