

(iii) If the petition and the report of the medical examination set forth reasonable grounds to believe that the individual ~~is a drug addict~~ ABUSER HAS A DRUG DEPENDENCE, the court may commit the individual to the Administration; and

(iv) Before commitment may be ordered, the individual has a right to a trial.

[9-624.] 8-624.

(a) (1) If, after the individual for whom commitment is sought under Part III of this subtitle appears before the court, the court finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the individual [is a drug addict] HAS A DRUG DEPENDENCE, the court shall order the individual to have a medical examination.

(2) (i) The order shall state:

1. The date and facility for the medical examination; and

2. The date on which the individual is to appear again before the court, which date shall be, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, within 7 days after admission of the individual to the medical examination facility.

(ii) If the court has reason to believe that the individual will not appear for the medical examination, the order also shall direct a peace officer or police officer to arrest and promptly to take the individual to the medical examination facility specified in the order.

(b) If the individual does not appear for the medical examination as ordered, and the court is satisfied that service was timely or could not be made with diligence, the court may issue a warrant that directs a peace officer or police officer to arrest and promptly to take the individual to the medical examination facility specified in the order.

(c) (1) The individual shall be given a copy of the order.

(2) The Administration shall be given a copy of the order and of any warrant issued under this section and a copy of the warrant, if any, issued under § [9-622] 8-622 of this subtitle.

[9-625.] 8-625.

(a) After the medical examination, the examiners promptly shall report to the court that ordered the examination.

(b) If, after reviewing the report, the court is not satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the
