

JOINT RESOLUTIONS

pre-trial officers, and one assistant U.S. Attorney are already located within the proposed Southern Division; and

WHEREAS, Caseload statistics from the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts show that 40% of the bankruptcy cases, 20% of the civil litigation, and 35% of the criminal litigation in the Federal District Court for the District of Maryland arise in the proposed Southern District Division; and

WHEREAS, The current location of the Federal District Court in Baltimore makes it difficult for witnesses, parties, and attorneys from Montgomery, Prince George's, Calvert, Charles, and St. Mary's Counties to economically and conveniently litigate their disputes; and

WHEREAS, Attorneys and clients in these counties do not make use of the Federal Court to the same extent as the citizens of the metropolitan Baltimore area; and

WHEREAS, Maryland is the only State within the Fourth Circuit (which includes Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and West Virginia) that does not have multiple districts or divisions, even though the population of Maryland now exceeds that of several multidistrict states in the Fourth Circuit at the time they acquired multiple districts; and

WHEREAS, The initial first-year cost of creating the court would be $427,500 and the annual recurring cost would be $247,300, or less than 2% of the Federal District Court's operating and expense budget; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the General Assembly urges the Congress of the United States to create a new division of the United States District Court for the district of Maryland, to be known as the "Southern Division" and to comprise the counties of Calvert, Charles, Montgomery, Prince George's and St. Mary's; and be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution be forwarded by the Department of Legislative Reference to the Honorable James Wright, Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515, and to the Maryland Congressional Delegation: Senators Paul S. Sarbanes and Barbara A. Mikulski, Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20510; and Representatives Royden P. Dyson, Helen Delich Bentley, Benjamin L. Cardin, C. Thomas McMillen, Steny H. Hoyer, Beverly B. Byron, Kweisi Mfume, and Constance A. Morella, House Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20515.
