

REVISOR'S NOTE: Subsection (a)(1) and (2) of this section is new language added to conform to almost all of the occupational licensing acts adopted by the General Assembly in the past several years. See, e.g., the comparable sections on disciplinary actions in the various titles of the Health Occupations Article. The General Assembly expressly decided that the language of these items was to be included in each of those sections as a fundamental ground for disciplining a licensee.

Subsections (a)(3) and (4), (b), and (c) of this section are new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 56, § 67, the first sentence and the second clause of the sixth sentence of § 70(a), and from the second clause of the third sentence of former Art. 81, § 446.

Subsections (a)(3) and (4) and (c) are revised to apply to any license.

In this section, the phrase "subject to the hearing provisions of § 619 of this subtitle" is added for clarity.

In the introductory language of subsections (a) and (c) of this section, the reference to the power to "deny a license to any applicant" is standard language added to state expressly a power that formerly only was implied in the law -- that the Comptroller may deny a license to an applicant who violates a disciplinary provision under this section.

In the introductory language of subsection (a) of this section, the reference to the Comptroller's power to reprimand a licensee is added to state specifically a power that is inherent in the express power to suspend or revoke a license.

Also in the introductory language of subsection (a) of this section, the reference to a "finding" by the Comptroller is deleted as surplusage.

In subsection (a)(3) of this section, the former word "rules" is deleted as surplusage.

In subsection (a)(4) of this section, the former reference to resale "at wholesale, as defined in § 11-501(1) of the Commercial Law Article of the Code, or at retail, as defined in § 11-501(i) of the Commercial Law Article of the Code" is deleted as surplusage.

In subsection (c) of this section, the condition that an applicant comply with "the requirements of this
