

procedure for the borrowing of money or shall be amended so to provide in the manner set forth in this subtitle. Charter amendments for such purpose are hereby authorized. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subheading or of any such charter, every such municipal corporation shall also have the authority to exercise all powers conferred upon municipal corporations by Title 9 of the Environment Article. Every such municipal corporation shall likewise have authority to borrow money in anticipation of the receipt of current taxes and to evidence such borrowing by the issuance and sale of tax anticipation notes, payable as to principal and interest from said taxes when received, unless the charter of such municipal corporation shall otherwise provide or unless any such charter shall be amended pursuant to this subtitle so to provide otherwise. The procedure for the issuance of tax anticipation notes shall be as prescribed in § 32 of this [article. Except] ARTICLE, EXCEPT that such notes may be sold by private negotiations. Whenever there shall be any conflict between the provisions of this subheading and the charter of any municipal corporation, the provisions of said charter shall control.

Article 25 - County Commissioners

(a) (1) The county commissioners of each county in this State, in addition to, but not in substitution of, the powers which have been or may be granted them, have the following express powers.

(n) To prevent and remove nuisances; to prevent the introduction of contagious diseases into the county; to approve the location for the manufacturing of soap and fertilizer; to approve the location of slaughterhouses, packinghouses, and all places which may involve or give rise to unsanitary conditions or conditions detrimental to health. However, the provisions of this subsection may not be construed to affect in any manner any of the powers and duties of EITHER the Secretary of Health and Mental Hygiene or THE SECRETARY OF THE ENVIRONMENT, OR any public general law relating to the subject of health. This subsection also shall be applicable in Dorchester County and the County Commissioners shall have the powers provided in this section.
