

(1) For purposes of this section only, "controlled premises" means:

(a) Places where persons registered or exempted from registration requirements under this subheading are required to keep records; and

(b) Places including factories, warehouses, establishments, and conveyances where persons registered or exempted from registration requirements under this subheading are permitted to hold, manufacture, compound, process, sell, deliver, or otherwise dispose of any controlled dangerous substance.

(2) When so authorized by an administrative inspection warrant issued pursuant to subsection (a) of this section an officer or employee designated by the Department, upon presenting the warrant and appropriate credentials to the owner, operator, or agent in charge, shall have the right to enter controlled premises for the purpose of conducting an administrative inspection.

(3) When so authorized by an administrative inspection warrant, an officer or employee designated by the Department shall have the [right --] RIGHT:

(a) To inspect and copy records required by this subheading to be kept;

(b) To inspect, within reasonable limits and in a reasonable manner, controlled premises and all pertinent equipment, finished and unfinished material, containers and labelling found therein, and, except as provided in subsection (b)(5) of this section, all other things therein (including records, files, papers, processes, controls, and facilities) bearing on violation of this subheading; and

(c) To inventory any stock of any controlled dangerous substance therein and obtain samples of any such substance.

(4) The Department and its agents shall have authority to inspect without a warrant books and records pursuant to this subheading and to enter and conduct administrative inspections (including seizures of property) without a warrant:

(a) With the consent of the owner, operator, or agent in charge of the controlled premises;

(b) In situations presenting imminent danger to health or safety;

(c) In situations involving inspection of conveyances where there is reasonable cause to believe that the
