722A.

(a) The Division of Correction shall make arrangements for the employment of any prisoners at any camp or camps in Queen Anne's County and in any other county or counties in which similar prisons or camps are now or may hereafter be established, or in any county within a reasonable distance, to be determined by the Division of Correction, from any such prisons or camps, in any agricultural work during any part of the year, except, however, any such prisoners being utilized or needed by the State Highway Administration for emergency road maintenance work in any county of this State. Persons who employ such prisoners from the Division of Correction shall be required to pay the reasonable value of such labor at the estimated prevailing wage scale for such work in the community where the prisoners are so employed and to give such security therefor as the Division may, in its discretion, determine and require. Persons employing such prison labor shall be authorized to sell the produce harvested by such labor [notwithstanding the restriction imposed by § 681 of this article]. Prisoners so employed in agricultural work shall be under the control and supervision of the Division of Correction to the extent as when employed on the construction and maintenance of roads.

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Obsolete cross-reference in Article 27, § 722A(a).

Occurred: The § 681 referred to in this section was repealed by Ch. 661, Acts of 1981.
