4-501.

In the construction of this subtitle, the following definition shall conclusively determine the meaning of the terms used;

(5) A parole is a conditional release from imprisonment, granted by the [Board of Parole] MARYLAND PAROLE COMMISSION to any of certain classes of prisoners in any adult penal or correctional institution of this State, in the manner provided for in this subheading. A parole shall be evidenced by an order in writing, and entitles the recipient thereof to leave the institution in which he was imprisoned, and to serve the remainder of his term outside the confines thereof if he shall satisfactorily comply with all the terms and conditions provided in the parole order. Each such paroled prisoner shall be deemed to remain in legal custody until the expiration of his full, undiminished term; and upon having violated the conditions of his parole, shall be remanded to the institution from which he was paroled.

(c) (1) Each member of the Commission shall serve a six-year term and until his successor qualifies. [However, members currently on the Board of Parole shall be appointed to the Commission and serve a term equal to the remainder of the term to which he had been appointed.] A member appointed to fill a vacancy in an unexpired term serves only for the remainder of the term.
