

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Redundant language in Article 41, § 4-508(d).

Occurred: Ch. 540, Acts of 1976.

[4-603.] 4-513.

The Governor upon giving the notice required by the Constitution may commute or change any sentence of death into penal confinement for such period as he shall think expedient. And, on giving such a notice, he may pardon any person, convicted of crime, on such conditions as he may prescribe, or he may upon like notice remit any part of the time for which any person may be sentenced to imprisonment on such like conditions without such remission operating as a full pardon to any such person.

[4-604.] 4-514.

In any case in which the Governor may issue a conditional pardon to any person, the Governor, in the absence of any provision to the contrary expressed therein, shall be the sole judge of whether or not the conditions of said pardon have been breached, and the determination by the Governor, that the conditions of such pardon have been violated by the person receiving the same, shall be final and not subject to review by any court of this State.

[4-605.] 4-515.

In any case in which the Governor may release any person by a conditional pardon and thereafter, on breach of any condition therein, revoke said conditional pardon, the person so released on such conditional pardon shall be required, unless otherwise ordered by the Governor, to serve the unserved portion of the sentence originally imposed upon him; and said person, unless otherwise ordered by the Governor, shall not be considered as serving any portion of his original sentence during the time he is released by virtue of such conditional pardon.

(a) It shall be the duty of the Commission of its own initiative to request the Division to make such investigation as may enable the Commission to determine the advisability of granting parole to persons sentenced to a term of 6 months or more under the laws of this State to the jurisdiction of the Division of Correction, or to any other place of confinement or detention of violators of the criminal laws of the State whenever the prisoner shall have served in confinement one fourth of the term or consecutive terms.
