

receipt requested, bearing a postmark from the United States Postal Service, to his last known address which shall state:

(iii) That, if the provisions of subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph are not complied with, at any time after 30 days from the date of the notice and without further notice, suit may be filed or judgment may be entered against him in the amount of the settlement offer. After the expiration of any 30 day period of notice to a defendant or uninsured party, the Fund may settle the claim, file suit, or request the court to set the action for an expedited hearing. At the hearing the court may proceed in a summary manner, and if it is satisfied that this section or any other applicable provisions of this [part] SUBTITLE have been complied with, it may enter judgment against the defendant or uninsured party in favor of the plaintiff or Fund in the amount of the settlement offer. The defendant or uninsured party has 10 days in which to appeal from the date of the entry of the judgment. On the expiration of 10 days from the entry of any judgment entered under this section, the judgment is not subject to appeal, amendment, or other action of the court, unless there is proof of fraud, mutual mistake, or obvious irregularity.
