(b) There shall be deducted from the applicable maximum amount set forth in subsection (a) of this section or from the amount of the judgment, whichever is smaller, the total of the following:

(1) From any judgment or portion thereof representing damages to real or personal property, one hundred dollars ($100.00);

(2) All amounts that the applicant has received or is likely to receive from any source toward payment of the settlement or judgment;

(3) All amounts that the applicant has received or is likely to receive toward payment of a judgment [of claim] against any person against whom the applicant has a cause of action for damages for bodily injury or death or damage to property, arising out of the same accident;

(4) All amounts that the applicant has received, or is likely to receive under any policy affording indemnity for damage to or destruction of his real or personal property;

(5) All amounts that the applicant has received or is likely to receive, by reason of the accident out of which THE applicant's claim arises, under or because of any workmen's compensation law. Medical, hospital, funeral, or other benefits paid or payable on behalf of the applicant under the workmen's compensation law shall be deemed, for the purposes of this subtitle, to be received or receivable by the applicant.
