Article 49B - Human Relations Commission

5.

(d) (2) This section does not require structural changes, modifications, or additions to buildings or vehicles, except as required by THIS paragraph [(2) of this subsection] or as otherwise required by law. In addition, any building constructed, modified or altered in compliance with, or pursuant to a waiver from, the Maryland Building Code for the Handicapped under [§ 11-402 of Article 41] ARTICLE 41B, § 6-102 of the Code shall not be subject to this section.

(i) When structural changes, modifications, or the provision of special equipment is necessary to accommodate a handicapped person the accommodation shall be "reasonable".

(ii) 1. "Reasonable accommodation" for the purposes of this paragraph means to make a public accommodation suitable for access, use, and patronage by a person without danger to the person's health or safety and without undue hardship or expense to a business or other activity making such an accommodation.

2. With respect to a private motor coach transportation carrier, for the purposes of this subsection,
