

46.

Whenever, under the laws of this State, public general and public local, or under any ordinance, rule or regulation, a license, certificate, permit or other authorization may be required in order for any person to engage in any profession, trade or calling or to do any other act or thing and any such law, ordinance, rule or regulation provides for the renewal of such license, certificate, permit or other authorization upon timely application therefor to any board or agency [enumerated in § 214 of Article 41 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, or to any other board or agency now or hereafter existing as described in § 220 of said article of said code, or now or hereafter created by or existing under any public local law or ordinance,] whose duty or part of whose duty it is to examine or license applicants for admission to practice or engage in any profession, trade or calling, and the person entitled to make such application fails to file the same[,] at the required [time] TIME, because said person is in the military, naval or other armed services of the United States or because said person's duties require his or her presence with said services, said person may file application for such renewal at any time within one year [from March 24, 1945 or one year] after having been released from service, [whichever period expires last,] and said person so filing shall have the same rights and privileges to the issuance of such renewal license, certificate, permit or other authorization as though his or her application therefor had been filed by the time required.

Whenever any period of time is required for service as an apprentice in, or in preparation for, any profession, trade or calling, by any of said laws, ordinances, rules or regulations, the applicant shall be entitled to credit thereon for the length of time during which he performed work or underwent training pertaining to said profession, trade or calling while in the armed forces of the United States, upon establishing proof thereof satisfactory to the appropriate examining board, adduced by certificate, affidavit or otherwise.

This section shall be liberally construed.
