

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Erroneous possessive pronoun in Article 101, § 16A(a)(1).

Occurred: Prior to the 1957 codification of the Annotated Code of Maryland.

21.

(b) The following shall constitute employees subject to the provisions of this article, except as exempted under subsection (c) of this section:

(5) Every person performing services for remuneration in the course of the trade, business, profession or occupation of an employer at the time of the injury, provided such person in relation to this service does not maintain a separate business, does not hold himself out to and render service to the public and IS not himself an employer subject to this article.

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Word omitted in Article 101, § 21(b)(5).

Occurred: In the printing of the 1971 Cumulative Supplement to 1969 Replacement Volume 8A of the Annotated Code of Maryland.

[27.

(a) There shall be a medical board consisting of three members who shall be licensed physicians in good professional standing, two of whom shall have had at least five (5) years' practice in the diagnosis, treatment and care of industrial diseases, and one of whom shall be especially trained in roentgenology, and who shall have had at least five (5) years' practice and experience. They shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate from a list of nominees to be submitted by the deans of the University of Maryland and Johns Hopkins University Schools of Medicine, and by the council of the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland, each of these three agencies to submit a list of at least three persons, two of whom shall be especially experienced in occupational diseases, and one of whom shall be an experienced roentgenologist. One of said members shall be designated as chairman of the medical board by the Governor. The term of office of a member of such board shall be six (6) years, except that the first appointments hereunder shall be made as follows: One for two (2) years, one for four (4) years, and one for six (6) years. Vacancies shall be filled for the balance of the unexpired terms in the same manner as the original appointments as hereinbefore provided. Any one member of the medical board