

(c) (2) In connection with any place of business that sells or offers for sale any food, a person may not display, whether in a window, door, or other location on or in the place of business, in any handbill or other printed matter distributed in or outside of the place of business, or otherwise in any advertisement, any Hebrew symbol unless he also displays in conjunction with the Hebrew symbol, in English letters of at least the same size as the characters used in the Hebrew symbol, the words "we sell kosher meat and food [only,"] ONLY", "we sell nonkosher meat and food [only,"] ONLY", or "we sell both kosher and nonkosher meat and [food,] FOOD", as the appropriate case may be.

(d) (2) A person may not sell or offer for sale, as kosher, any fresh meat or poultry unless the words "soaked and salted" or "not soaked and [salted,] SALTED", as the appropriate case may be, is marked:

(i) On the package label; or

(ii) If the product is not packaged, on a sign prominently displayed in conjunction with the product.

14-904.

(a) A person may not sell or offer for sale, as kosher, any unpackaged food, whether for consumption in his place of business or elsewhere, if, in the same place of business, he also offers for sale any unpackaged nonkosher food, unless he includes on each window sign and each display advertisement in block letters at least 4 inches high the words "kosher and nonkosher food sold here" or, as to the sale of meat alone, "kosher and nonkosher meat sold [here.]" HERE".

(b) A person may not display for sale, as kosher, any unpackaged food, whether for consumption in his place of business or elsewhere, if, in the same show window or other location on or in his place of business, he also displays any unpackaged nonkosher food, unless he displays over the kosher and nonkosher food signs that read, in block letters at least 4 inches high "kosher food" and "nonkosher [food,] FOOD", respectively, or, as to the display of meat alone, "kosher meat" and "nonkosher [meat,] MEAT", respectively.

(c) A person may not prepare or serve, as kosher, any food, whether for consumption in his place of business or elsewhere, if, in the same place of business, he also prepares or serves nonkosher food, unless he:

(2) Includes on each sign and display advertisement in or about his premises in block letters at least 4 inches high the words "kosher and nonkosher food prepared and sold [here.]"
