

Subsection (c)(3) of this section is standard language added to state expressly that which only was implied in the former law -- i.e., applications may be made only on the form that the Board provides.

Subsection (d) of this section is standard language added to state expressly that which only was implied in the former law -- i.e., the Board must renew the license of a qualified licensee.

Subsection (e) of this section is new language added to state expressly that which only was implied by former Art. 56, § 472(a)4, which required an applicant to pay a late renewal fee to renew a license 30 days or more after the expiration date and, thus, implied that the applicant has a grace period of 30 days after the license expires to renew it. This addition conforms to the practice of the Board.

The first sentence of former Art. 56, § 470(b), which stated that the right to practice architecture "is a personal right ... and is not transferable", is deleted as unnecessary in light of the licensing provisions of this subtitle.

As to the authority of the Board to set fees, see § 3-209 of this title.
