

Occurred: As a result of Ch. 639, Acts of 1988, correction by the Michie Company in the 1988 Cumulative Supplement to the 1983 Replacement Volume of the Natural Resources Article is validated by this Act.

3-124.

The exercise of the powers granted by this subtitle [are] IS for the benefit of the people of the State for the improvement of their health and living conditions. Since the activities of the Service and the operation and maintenance of its projects constitute the performance of essential governmental functions, the Service is exempt from any payment of or liability for any and all taxes, whether federal, State, or local, now or hereafter levied or imposed, and any assessments or other governmental charges. The bonds and notes of the Service issued pursuant to the authority of this subtitle, their transfer, the interest payable thereon, and any income derived therefrom, including any profit realized in the sale or exchange thereof, at all times shall be exempt from taxation of every kind and nature whatsoever by the State, or by any of its political subdivisions, municipal corporations, or public units of any kind.

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Incorrect word usage in § 3-124 of the Natural Resources Article.

Occurred: Ch. 4, Acts of the First Special Session of 1973.

3-903.

(k) (1) Whenever the Authority shall undertake to provide service to or within any participating county, such county shall have the option (which option must be exercised prior to the effectiveness of such undertaking) of[;]:

[(1)] (I) Designating those employees who, at the time of the transfer, were engaged primarily in the rendering of such service, whereupon the Authority shall be responsible for the continuation of such employees with all rights and privileges and equivalent benefits that such employees theretofore enjoyed; or

[(2)] (II) Not certifying to the Authority any employees formerly engaged in providing the "take-over" services, but continuing such employees in the county's employment.

(2) In the event that any employee of a county so certified to the Authority does not desire to be transferred to the Authority, such employee shall be given first priority in the