

in another state. This phrase, which is included in comparable provisions throughout the Code and which conforms to practice of the Board, allows the Board to give fair consideration under this section to a barber who, in the course of a professional career, practices in several states before moving to this State to practice.

In subsection (b)(4)(i) and (5) of this section, the word "certifying" is substituted for the former words "attesting" and "verifying", for uniformity and clarity.

The first sentence of former Art. 56, § 438(b), which required an applicant for a reciprocal master barber license to pass an examination, is deleted as unnecessary in light of this section and § 4-302(e) of this subtitle.
