CHAPTER 105

(Senate Bill 151)

AN ACT concerning

Maryland Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program

FOR the purpose of providing that a representative of the Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program may not be liable for good faith performance of official duties; prohibiting willful interference with representatives of the program in performance of their official duties; requiring the Director of the Office on Aging to adopt certain regulations; prohibiting certain retaliation and reprisals against residents and employees who file complaints; providing certain penalties; and generally relating to the Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program.
