

first sentence of former Art. 56, § 479(a), which referred to the work "generally and usually performed by so-called hairdressers, cosmetologists, cosmetologists aides, cosmeticians, wig stylists not licensed as barbers, beauticians, or beauty culturists and demonstrators of beauty preparations or equipment, and however denominated in so-called hairdressing and beauty shops".

The term "practice cosmetology" is substituted, as the defined term, for the former word "beauty culture", in accordance with Ch. 278, Acts of 1961, which substantively revised the laws that related to cosmetologists and, in § 3, directed that references to "hairdressers" and "beauty culturists" be replaced by references to "cosmetologists". The substituted language also states the definition in the infinitive form to allow minor verb variations of the defined term without taking these variations out of the scope of the definition.

The defined term "practice cosmetology" is intended to be an exclusive composite of all of the substantive elements that are encompassed in the practice of cosmetology. Therefore, in the introductory language of this subsection, the word "means" is substituted for the former word "includes" and for the fourth clause of the first sentence of former Art. 56, § 479(a), which provided that the "enumerated practices shall be inclusive of the term beauty culture but not in limitation thereof."

In light of the addition of items (5) and (6) of this subsection, the references, in the third clause of the first sentence of former Art. 56, § 479(a), to "the removal of superfluous hair, and the massaging, ... or similar work upon the scalp, face, arms or hands, by the use of mechanical ... appliance or cosmetics, ... or by other means" and to "manicuring and pedicuring the nails of either sex" are deleted.

The second sentence of former Art. 56, § 479(a), which excluded from the former term "beauty culture" any service that cosmetologists are not licensed to perform, is deleted as redundant.
