

"PROVIDE DEMONSTRATING SERVICES" MEANS TO DEMONSTRATE TO AN INDIVIDUAL, FOR COMPENSATION, ANY BEAUTY PREPARATION OR BEAUTY EQUIPMENT.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This subsection is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 56, § 479(h).

The term "provide demonstrating services" is substituted, as the defined term, for the former word "demonstrator", to standardize use of defined terms throughout this title. Thus, the substituted language states the definition in the infinitive form to allow minor verb variations of the defined term without taking these variations out of the scope of the definition.

The former limitations "upon a patron" and "in a beauty shop" are deleted as incorrect in light of § 5-607 of this title, which allows services in places other than beauty salons and implicitly allows service to individuals other than beauty salon patrons in some instances. See the revisor's note to § 5-607 of this title.

The former phrases "whether paid by a regular employer or not" and "for profit" are deleted as unnecessary since the phrase "for compensation" is broad enough to encompass payment from any source.

(1) CLEANSING, EXERCISING, MASSAGING, STIMULATING, OR PERFORMING ANY OTHER SIMILAR PROCEDURE ON THE ARMS, FACE, HANDS, OR SCALP BY ELECTRICAL, MECHANICAL, OR ANY OTHER MEANS;

(2) APPLYING TO THE FACE AN ANTISEPTIC, CREAM, LOTION, TONIC, OR COSMETIC PREPARATION; OR

(3) REMOVING SUPERFLUOUS HAIR BY THE USE OF A DEPILATORY, TWEEZERS, OR WAX.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This subsection is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 56, § 479(q).

The term "provide esthetic services" is substituted, as the defined term, for the former word "cosmetician", to reflect current usage in the
