

Subsection (b) of this section is new language derived without substantive change from the fifth and sixth sentences of former Art. 56, § 492, except as those sentences related to inspectors, and the second sentence of § 493, as that sentence related to designation of examiners.

Subsection (c) of this section is new language derived without substantive change from the second sentence of former Art. 56, § 493, as that sentence related to the times and places of examination.

Subsection (d) of this section is standard language added to conform to similar provisions that govern examinations for licensing by other business occupation boards. It provides an element of fundamental fairness by requiring the Board to give qualified applicants notice before the administration of examinations. This addition conforms to the practice of the Board.

Subsection (e)(1) of this section is standard language added to state expressly that which only was implied in the former law -- i.e., the Board has control over the content, administration, and scoring of examinations.

Subsection (e)(2) of this section is new language added to state expressly that which only was implied by the reference, in the second sentence of former Art. 56, § 493, to practical and written parts.

Subsection (f) of this section is new language added to conform to the practice of the Board to notify applicants about their examination results.

Subsection (a) of this section is revised in standard language. See the General Revisor's Note to this article.

In subsection (b)(1) of this section, the phrases "to give examinations to applicants" are substituted for the former phrases "to assist the Board in the discharge of its duties", for brevity and clarity.
