CHAPTER 301

(Senate Bill 65)

AN ACT concerning

Tobacco Products - Sales to Minors

FOR the purpose of altering a provision of law that prohibits dealers, vendors, and certain other persons from selling tobacco products to minors under a certain age; altering a provision of law that allows a minor under a certain age to buy certain tobacco products if the minor has a note from the parent or guardian; eliminating the mandatory minimum fine for dealers, vendors, and certain other persons selling tobacco products to minors under a certain age; prescribing that each cigarette vending machine display a label stating the age requirement and penalty for selling tobacco products to minors under a certain age; providing an exception under certain circumstances; and generally relating to sales of tobacco products to minors under a certain age.
