

(f) Each railroad affected by the provisions of this section shall maintain at a designated location a list or schedule of the locomotives hereinabove referred to. It shall set forth the date that the speed indicator or speed recorder referred to herein was calibrated and found to be functioning in accordance with the provisions of this section. It shall advise the Public Service Commission as to the location.

(g) The Public Service Commission shall enforce the provisions of this section and may issue an order or orders as necessary to require compliance therewith.]

[40.

(a) It shall be the duty of all persons engaged in the operation of railroads to comply with any regulation or order of the Commission issued under the provisions of §§ 39 to 44, and to furnish any information required by the Commission for purposes of §§ 39 to 44.

(b) The Commission or its authorized agent may, during reasonable hours, enter the place of operation of any person engaged in the operation of railroads for the purpose of ascertaining whether the standards prescribed by authority of §§ 39 to 44 are being complied with.]

[41.

Whenever an employee shall file a complaint with the Commission charging violation of the regulation of the Commission, or the Commission upon its own initiative issues a complaint, the person complained of shall be served with a copy thereof and shall, within twenty days, file a written answer with the Commission. Within ten days after an answer is filed the Commission shall set a date for a hearing of the complaint at a place convenient to both the complainant and the person complained of. The Commission may, in its discretion, permit any interested person or organization to intervene. A party to the hearing may appear and be heard in person or by his representative, and may examine or cross-examine witnesses or present other evidence. On motion of a party, the Commission may allow a continuance of not to exceed thirty days.]

[42.

Within forty-five days after the conclusion of a hearing held under the provisions of §§ 39 to 44, the Commission shall issue an order dismissing the complaint or requiring compliance with a regulation of the Commission. The Commission may, in its discretion, allow the employer not to exceed forty-five days within which to comply with an order. Any person aggrieved by the order of the Commission may appeal to the circuit court of the county or of Baltimore City in which the place of employment is
