

Similarly, in subsection (c)(1) of this section, the general references to a "disciplinary action" and a "proceeding ... for an alleged violation of this title" are substituted for the former references to a case "involving the revocation of a license, for practice, or offering to practice ... without a license".

In the introductory language of subsection (c)(1) of this section, the word "evidence" is substituted for the former reference to "books, papers or documents", for brevity.

In subsection (c)(3) of this section, the former phrase "where the witness resides" is deleted in deference to the normal venue provisions that would apply under the law. (See § 14-206(b) of this article for a similar provision.)

The sixth sentence of Art. 56, § 306, which provided for enforcement of orders of the circuit court in the same manner as its other orders, is deleted as surplusage.
