

Act, effective July 1, 1989, without any change or loss of rights, benefits, entitlements, or status, including, if any, merit system and retirement status, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Act. Upon termination of employment of any incumbent in a management position in the Office of Planning who is transferred under the provisions of this Act, the Department of Personnel shall reevaluate the position and, if necessary, make an appropriate reclassification consistent with the recognition that the position is employed by an agency rather than by a department.

SECTION 4. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That every person who, as of June 30, 1989, is employed by the Department of State Planning in a position abolished by this Act and who, effective July 1, 1989, is transferred to the same or a substantially similar position with the Department of Budget and Fiscal Planning or the Office of Planning shall transfer without any change or loss of rights, benefits, entitlements, or status, including, if any, merit system and retirement status, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Act.

SECTION 5. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, nothing in this Act affects the term of office of an appointed member of any board, commission, committee, or other agency or unit, and a person who is a member of such a unit on the effective date of this Act shall remain a member of that unit or, as the case may be, shall become a member of any successor unit for the balance of the term to which the person was appointed, unless the person sooner dies, resigns, or is removed pursuant to law.

SECTION 6. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That, except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Act, any transaction affected by or flowing from any statute here amended, repealed, or transferred, and validly entered into before the effective date of this Act and every right, duty, or interest flowing from it remains valid after the effective date of this Act and may be terminated, completed, consummated, or enforced pursuant to law.

SECTION 7. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That, except as otherwise provided in this Act, all permits and licenses, applications for permits and licenses, rules and regulations, proposed rules and regulations, standards and guidelines, orders and other directives, forms, plans, memberships, special funds, appropriations, grants, applications for grants, contracts, property, investigations, administrative and judicial proceedings, rights to sue and be sued, and all other duties and responsibilities associated with those functions transferred by this Act shall continue in effect under the Secretary of Budget
