

Former Art. 56, § 319, which provided for the severability of former Art. 56, §§ 299 through 319A, is deleted as unnecessary in light of Art. 1, § 23 of the Code.

Former Art. 56, § 310 included qualifications for a license that were in effect from July 1, 1972, through May 26, 1977. Although parts of former § 310 were transitory in effect and their intended purposes already have been served, the provisions of that section have been transferred to the Session Laws, to avoid any possible argument that there is no authority to continue to license the individuals who were licensed under former Art. 56, § 310. However, former Art. 56, § 312, which provided for examinations "[w]hen ... required", is deleted since examinations only were required under one of the former, and now obsolete, alternatives in former Art. 56, § 310. See the revisor's note to § 7-304 of this title.
