

members to be licensed hearing aid dealers. Ch. 471, Acts of 1983, subsequently added an exception only for the consumer member. Nonetheless, it has not been the practice to require the audiologist and physician members also to be licensed hearing aid dealers.

In subsection (a)(2)(ii)3 of this section, the reference to the "American Speech-Language-Hearing Association" is substituted for the former reference to the "American Speech and Hearing Association", to reflect the change in the name of the entity in 1978.

In subsection (a)(2)(iv) of this section, the defined term "consumer member" is substituted for the former reference to a "public member", to clarify that this member is subject to the requirements of Art. 41, § 8-102 of the Code -- now repeated in subsections (c) and (d) of this section.

In subsection (a)(4) of this section, the word "Specialist" is added to conform to the current name of the Association.
