CHAPTER 632

(Senate Bill 520)

AN ACT concerning

Business Occupations and Professions

FOR the purpose of altering substantively numerous provisions related to business occupations and professions regulated in this State and to the licensing units that regulate those occupations and professions, including: in connection with the practice of architecture, restricting the right to design, build, alter, or repair a structure without a licensed architect, making denial or revocation of a license for certain conduct mandatory, authorizing civil penalties, providing criminal penalties for unauthorized operation of a business through which architecture is practiced and misrepresentation about authority to operate such a
