

business, and requiring reports about violation of criminal acts; imposing reinstatement fees for licenses in connection with barbering, cosmetology, and engineering; in connection with barbering, imposing pre-opening inspection fees for barber school permits, authorizing reinstatement of certain licenses, and expanding the duty to display licenses; in connection with cosmetology, altering educational requirements for certain limited licenses, expanding the authority of the State Board of Cosmetologists to impose civil penalties on apprentices, transferring to county boards of education the power to set the term of training for certain public school students in cosmetology courses, making a transfer of the ownership of a cosmetology school contingent on notice for certain purposes, and expanding the provisions for service of subpoenas of the State Board of Cosmetology; in connection with engineering, altering an examination requirement for certain applicants for licensure; in connection with forestry, clarifying a residency requirement; in connection with hearing aid services, altering the responsibility of the State Board of Examiners for Hearing Aid Dealers for calibration of equipment and inspection of facilities; in connection with landscape architecture, providing criminal penalties for violation of prohibited acts; in connection with practicing law, altering an exemption from the requirements for admission to the Bar of the Court of Appeals of Maryland and other requirements, altering educational requirements for admission, restricting actions under an attorney's lien, expanding protection of records of a lawyer counseling committee, and generally adding and altering penalties; in connection with pilotage services, transferring to the Department of the Environment certain responsibility for printing regulations about disposal of wastes and generally adding and altering penalties; in connection with security guard and private detective services, clarifying the authority of the Superintendent and the Maryland State Police and altering a ground for disciplinary action; deleting a requirement that the Secretary of Licensing and Regulation include the report of the State Real Estate Commission in the annual report of the Secretary; clarifying the authority of the Secretary over the State Board of Foresters and the State Board of Examiners of Landscape Architects; altering or adding quorum provisions for the State Board of Architects, the State Board for Professional Land Surveyors, the State Board of Barbers, the State Board of Examiners for Hearing Aid Dealers, and the State Board of Examiners of Landscape Architects; altering immunity provisions for the State Board of Architects and its staff, the State Board for Professional Engineers, and the State Board for Professional Land Surveyors; extending a restriction on affiliation of a cosmetology member of the State Board of Cosmetologists to postgraduate schools; granting the State Board for Professional Land Surveyors