

Subsection (f) of this section is standard language added to state expressly that which only was implied in the former law -- i.e., except as otherwise provided, an applicant must not only take but pass the examination given by the Board, to be licensed.

In subsection (b) of this section, the term "good character and reputation" is standard language substituted for the former term "good moral character", to conform to similar provisions elsewhere in this article.

Defined terms: "Board" § 8-101

REVISOR'S NOTE: Item (1) of this section is standard language added to state expressly that which only was implied in the former law -- i.e., applications may be made only on the form that the Board provides.

Item (2) of this section is new language derived without substantive change from the fourth sentence of former Art. 56, § 516(b) and, as it related to the registration fee, § 513.

In the introductory language of this section, the reference to a "license" is substituted for the former references to "registration", "certificate of endorsement", and "certificate of registration", for consistency and conformity to changes in terminology made throughout this article. See the General Revisor's Note to this article.
