

incapacitated has been designated as provided in subsection (a) of this section, a donor, his legal representative, the legal representative of the custodian or an adult member of the minor's family, or the minor, if he has attained the age of 14 years, may petition the court for the designation of a successor custodian. If the minor has become eligible to receive the custodial property by his attainment of the age specified in § 13-304(d) of this subtitle, a petition for the designation of a successor custodian need not be filed. The minor may obtain the custodial property upon presentation by the minor of evidence:

(i) Of the legal incapacity or death of the custodian; and

(ii) That the minor has attained the specified age.

(3) Nothing in this subsection shall affect the power of a personal representative or trustee to appoint a custodian pursuant to § 13-302(a)(7) or (8) of this subtitle, or the power of an owner of a life insurance policy or annuity contract to appoint a successor custodian pursuant to § 13-302(d).

(e) A donor, the legal representative of a donor, a successor custodian, an adult member of the minor's family, a guardian of the minor or the minor, if he has attained the age of 14 years, may petition the court that, for cause shown in the petition, the custodian be removed and a successor custodian be designated or, in the alternative, that the custodian be required to give bond for the performance of his duties.

(f) Upon the filing of a petition as provided in this section, the court shall grant an order, directed to the persons concerned and returnable on such notice as the court may require, to show cause why the relief prayed for in the petition should not be granted, and, in due course, grant such relief as the court finds to be in the best interests of the minor.]

(a) The minor, if he has attained the age of 14 years, or the legal representative of the minor, an adult member of the minor's family, or a donor or his legal representative may petition the court for an accounting by the custodian or his legal representative.

(b) The court, in a proceeding under this subtitle or otherwise, may require or permit the custodian or his legal representative to account and, if the custodian is removed, shall so require and order delivery of all custodial property to the successor custodian and the execution of all instruments required for the transfer thereof.]
