

Subsection (b) of this section is new language added to conform to the practice of the Board and to similar provisions governing other State-regulated occupations. See § 8-311(b) of this subtitle about the address to which a notice is to be sent.

Subsections (c)(1) and (f)(2) of this section are standard language added for clarity.

Subsection (c)(2) of this section is new language derived without substantive change from the first sentence of former Art. 56, § 519(b).

Subsection (c)(3)(i) of this section is standard language added to state expressly that which only was implied in the former law -- i.e., applications may be made only on the form that the Board provides.

Subsection (c)(3)(ii) of this section is new language added to ensure that the Board has the information needed to determine whether a licensee qualifies for renewal of the license.

Subsection (d)(1) of this section is new language added to state expressly that which only was implied in the former law -- i.e., the Board may not renew a license unless the licensee meets the requirements for renewal.

Subsection (d)(2) of this section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 56, § 520.

Subsection (d)(3) of this section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 56, § 524(11).

Subsection (e) of this section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 56, § 524(5), as that item related to renewal, and rephrased in standard language to state that the Board renews licenses of qualified licensees.

Subsection (f)(1) and (3) of this section is new language derived without substantive change from the second sentence of former Art. 56, § 519(b).

In subsection (d)(2) of this section, the former reference to "November 1, 1977" is deleted as obsolete.
